Graduate Programs

Hollins offers master of arts (M.A.) degrees in children's literature, liberal studies, screenwriting and film studies, teaching, and teaching and learning. Master of fine arts (M.F.A.) degrees are offered in children's book writing and illustrating, children's literature, creative writing, dance, playwriting, and screenwriting.

The general requirement for admission to these programs is a bachelor's degree or the equivalent from a regionally accredited college or university. Individual graduate programs have additional requirements.

Consideration of exceptional applicants without an undergraduate degree may be taken under advisement by the M.F.A. Dance Admission Committee with a second review by the Graduate Studies Advisory Committee. Demonstration of experience equivalent to a B.A. or B.F.A. and articulation by the applicant regarding his/her ability to be successful in graduate level study is required.

Admission Guidelines

Candidates for admission to Hollins' graduate programs must have a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university. Consideration of exceptional applicants without an undergraduate degree may be taken under advisement by the M.F.A. Dance Admission Committee with a second review by the Graduate Studies Advisory Committee. Demonstration of experience equivalent to a B.A. or B.F.A. and articulation by the applicant regarding his/her ability to be successful in graduate study is required.

All applicants must submit the following credentials:

1. A completed application form, including the personal statement of educational objectives.
2. A $40 application fee.
3. An official copy of the undergraduate transcript. (In the case of applicants without an undergraduate degree, a transcript of any college course work should be submitted along with a document clearly articulating and demonstrating work in the professional field and why this work is equivalent to an undergraduate experience. This document must also address why the applicant feels capable of moving successfully through graduate level study.)
