

Dear Advisors,

Please consider referring incoming and transfer students to the following Batten Leadership Institute classes.

Thank you,
Abrina Schnurman

BLI 210: CONFLICT, FEEDBACK AND CHANGE (4 credits)

This course employs an understanding of conflict, change, negotiation, feedback and leadership theories. A strong emphasis is on awareness of self, with students identifying their own areas for development. Open to first-year students. No prerequisites. Offered both terms.

Section 1: M, W, F 9:10 – 10:10

Section 2: M, W, F 11:30 – 12:30

BLI 220: DECISION-MAKING STRATEGIES FOR TEAMS AND PROJECTS (4 credits)

This course offers tools and strategies for decision-making, team functioning and project design. Students will develop a project from design to implementation, to benefit an identified population (ex: animals, adults, children, etc.). Content also incorporates a contextual understanding of culture and values across organizational systems. No prerequisites. Offered both terms.
